From the Pastor & the Pastoral Staff

"We are the clay and you the potter. We are all the work of your hands." — Is 64:7

This Bible verse is one of my favorites. The year, 2020, has certainly impacted all of us severely. We find ourselves in a place very different from where we expected to be: Thanksgiving without family, hybrid or virtual classes, lost jobs, ongoing fear and worry, staying away from those we love, even suddenly losing friends and loved ones. All of these were unexpected. Is this really our world now? It is as if the virus has been thrown onto the potter's wheel as we, the clay, were being shaped. Yet God, the master potter, continues to work with us, continues to shape us into who we can become, despite the challenges all around us.

In his September 25, 2020 address to the United Nations General Assembly, Pope Francis noted that "We never emerge from a crisis just as we were. We come out either better or worse." And this is where the master potter comes in. We know we will be shaped into something different from what we anticipated. But we can cooperate to have this be something better than we would have been.

So we continue forward, relying more heavily on God's help and guidance. We continue forward into a future that is much more uncertain than we would prefer. And we try, as best we can, to cooperate with the potter and the re-shaping of ourselves and of our entire world.

At St. Matthias, we have adapted and we continue to adapt. We join our community for Mass on YouTube, or perhaps in-person if we are able. We attend classes at the school while wearing masks and staying apart from our friends. We participate in meetings and ministries on Zoom and connect with each other electronically. And we discover small blessings along the way. Our homebound parishioners are now able to pray with our entire community at Mass every day through our livestreaming. We discover the blessing of being able to see every person's face all at once on our Zoom screen when we meet as a small group. And we meet new friends from around the world who stumble onto our parish online, and participate with us in different ways.

Rather than skipping some of our favorite traditions, we modify them to work in our current environment. Our Giving Tree this year will use virtual gift tags. We are again invited to purchase specific gifts, as is our tradition, but instead of wrapping them and bringing them to church, we will each ship them directly to the participating agencies. (See page 9.)

Our #GivingTuesday campaign on December 1 will again prioritize the needs of our school children and teachers. With an increased awareness of the importance of "smart technology", we will focus on raising funds to provide Interactive Technology Displays for our classrooms. (See page 8.)

Last Spring, after several weeks of virtual learning, our son told me, "Mom, I never thought I would say this. But I want to go back to school." Trying to take a long view of the situation, I encouraged him to remember this time, so that someday, he would have an answer when his grandchildren would ask him, "What was it like living through The Pandemic?" We joked that they would never believe that he actually wanted to go back to school.

Taking the long view again, it is good for us to ponder what we will be like and how we will be different in the distant future. Will we be better or worse as a result of having lived through this? At each turn of the wheel, the master potter is inviting us to choose.

Ana V. Kelly, Pastoral Associate

Smile with Your Family

A young man agreed to baby-sit one night so a single mother could have an evening out. At bedtime he sent the youngsters upstairs to bed and settled down to watch football. One child kept creeping down the stairs, but the young man kept sending him back to bed. At 9pm the doorbell rang, it was the next-door neighbor, Mrs. Brown, asking whether her son was there. The young man brusquely replied, "No." Just then a little head appeared over the banister and shouted, "I'm here, Mom, but he won't let me go home!" 😊

Little Johnny's kindergarten class was on a field trip to their local police station where they saw pictures, tacked to a bulletin board, of the 10 most wanted men. One of the youngsters pointed to a picture and asked if it really was the photo of a wanted person. "Yes," said the policeman. "The detectives want him very badly." So Little Johnny asked, "Why didn't you keep him when you took his picture?" 😊

Quotes on patience: I am extraordinarily patient, provided I get my own way in the end. (Margaret Thatcher)

You can learn many things from children... how much patience you have for instance. (Franklin Jones)

Patience is the quality you admire in the driver behind you, but can't stand in the driver who's in front of you. (Anonymous)

Parenting Tune-Up

Advent starts today! Although too often considered as the Christmas shopping season, our Church reminds us that it is a time to "Be watchful! Be alert!" (Mark 13:33) During this Advent, each day ask your child to practice at least one kind, joyful, or positive act. Speak about it at the end of the day and give encouragement.

Marriage Tune-Up

"Be watchful! Be alert!" (Mark 13:33) Advent has begun. Each day try to notice one act of helpfulness or kindness that your beloved does. Don't take each other for granted.

An Advent Project

Every morning when we get up, let us pray, "Lord, show me someone today with whom I may share your love, mercy and forgiveness." Mother Teresa of Calcutta once said, "Whatever you do in your family, for your children, for your husband, for your wife, you do for Jesus."

Every night when we go to bed, let us ask ourselves, "Where have I found Christ today?" The answer will be God's Advent gift to us that day. By being alert and watchful we will receive an extra gift: Christ himself. Let us remember the saying of St. Thomas Aquinas: "Without God, I can't. Without me, He won't."

"You may Judge my Ability as a Salesman"

Years ago, when 20th Century Fox advertised in the New York papers to fill a vacancy in its sales force, one applicant replied: "I am at present selling furniture at the address below. You may judge my ability as a salesman if you will stop in to see me at any time, pretending that you are interested in buying furniture. When you come in, you can identify me by my red hair. And I should have no way of identifying you. Such salesmanship as I exhibit during your visit, therefore, will be no more than my usual workday approach and not a special effort to impress a prospective employer." From among more than 1500 applicants, this guy got the job.

Jesus wants us to be ready like that man. We don't know when He's coming back, so we should be prepared all the time, one day at a time. We need to focus on our present duties. But we are so future-oriented that we often forget the present entirely. We spend too much time trying to protect ourselves against future misfortunes. We save for a rainy day, to get married, to buy a home, to send the children to college, to retire in comfort and to protect ourselves against future misfortunes. But we need to be more spiritually wakeful and prepare for our eternal life because we can die any day, and that is the end of the world for us. Let this Advent season be the time of such a preparation for us.

Sunday Reflections

Advent Sunday Reflection: Walk Slow... Enjoy Every Moment

"Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come." Mark 13: 33-37

Every morning, she goes for a walk with her two daughters. The first half goes quickly. The three walk the third-of-a-mile up the road to the older daughter's kindergarten at the end of their street. She hugs her five-year-old goodbye and sends her on her way.

Then she and her four-year-old, Poesy, turn around and start back. The return trip home lasts as long as Mom is willing to let it. They cover the same third-of-a-mile, but the pace is slower and the path meandering, as Poesy stops to probe the mysteries along the way: investigating a storm drain, examining a fallen scarlet maple leaf, scaling a water puddle (missing the first couple of attempts). She discovers a twig and leaf and excitedly shows her mother how, together, they make a flag. "Mommy! Look!" Poesy cries as she points to a beautiful rainbow hovering over the mist created by a water sprinkler. Her attention constantly revolves, to a dog one second, to a feather the next, then to an eye-catching pebble. Mom hides her impatience. There's a great deal to be done today. Both have places to be. While Mom cherishes this time with her daughter, she's aware that the clock is ticking.

But still . . . "Watching her, I feel the rush of time," she writes, "and I realize just how soon these walks of ours will end. Come September she will be in kindergarten; I will leave both girls at school and walk on my own. Once again I'll travel as quickly as I want to, but the appeal of that has now faded away. These slow morning rambles with my four-year-old — the new day glimmering around us, the sun warm on our backs — are the most fleeting kind of pleasure. I'll try to remember, later, what she did and said, but the feeling of the moment, sweet and simple, will be gone. "I stop walking, looking over my shoulder for Poesy. When she gets to me, I reach down and take her hand."

On this First Sunday of Advent, Jesus urges us to appreciate what this mom comes to realize on her morning walk with her daughters: that life is precious, that our world changes, that our time is limited. Father Richard Rohr writes that faith and spirituality begin with "seeing." It's not about earning or achieving but about "paying attention": paying attention to the presence of God in every joy and sorrow, in every pain and trauma, in every victory and setback before us. Advent calls us to "watch," to be "alert" to the presence of God in the love of family and friends, to find the true meaning and purpose of our lives in moments of compassion, forgiveness and generosity.

"Today, Sir, Today!"

Some years ago a tourist visited the Castle Villa Asconti on the shores of Lake Como in northern Italy. Only the old gardener opened the gates, and the visitor stepped into the garden, which was perfectly kept. The visitor asked when the owner was last there. He was told, "Twelve years ago." Did he ever write? No. Where did he get instructions? From his agent in Milan. Does the master ever come? No. "But, you keep the grounds as though your master were coming back tomorrow." The old gardener quickly replied, "Today, sir, today." A Christian watches and works as though the Master would return this very day.

Absentee land-owners and wayfaring masters were a common thing in Jesus' time. Such background info is important to understand today's parable.

The owners of large properties often lived elsewhere, leaving servants in charge of caring for and carrying on business as if the owners were still present. This kind of situation would be a test for the servants left in charge. Would they be faithful day by day, or would they wait until they heard the master was about to return and then quickly get things in order? The trouble was that often they didn't know when the land-owner would return. The absence of the master was a test.

The need for Christian alertness: Jesus illustrates the need for alertness and readiness by comparing the situation of his followers to that of a gate-keeper in a house when the owner was out of the country. Since the gate-keeper did not know when the owner of the house would return, "in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning," he must always be ready if he did not want the owner to find him asleep. In the same way, there is no reason for Christ's followers to be fearful, provided we are ready every day for Jesus' return. If we are awake and ready, the coming of the Son of Man is an event to be greeted with joy. Thus our whole life should be a preparation to meet the master.

Advent! Wake Up! But to What?

Do you remember the movie Awakening? Robert De Niro plays the part of a patient who, for thirty years, does not move or speak. A particularly, sensitive and enterprising doctor tries out some new theories and lo and behold, the patient begins to move around, talk and feel. For a brief period he returns to this world and announces to those amazed folks around him that he is back: "I have been away for quite some time.... now I am back." He becomes gradually aware of the love and concern that surrounds him and what is really alive inside of his heart and soul.

—It is never too late to wake up. Morning is when you wake up. Advent is a nice time to wake up. Wake up to give an account of your stewardship. Wake up into a time for giving and sharing, a time that we are called to be thankful and prepare our hearts for the Christ child. Wake up and open your eyes in Faith to see God present and active in your life and in your world.

Sunday Reflections

Wesley & Luther

Once John Wesley (founder of the Methodist Church) was asked what he would do if he knew this was his last day on earth. He replied, "At 4 o'clock I would have some tea. At 6 I would visit Mrs. Brown in the hospital. Then at 7:30 I would conduct a mid-week prayer service. At 10 I would go to bed and would wake up in glory." When Martin Luther (founder of the Lutheran Church) was asked what he would do on the day of Jesus' return, he said he would go out and plant a tree. Our text tells us that Christ expects each of us to be about our work so that when he comes, he will find us in gainful and constructive employment, taking care of the world as his trustees.

There is work to be completed. Like the parents who trust their teenagers to look after the house while they are away, or like the teacher who leaves the classroom after giving her students plenty of work to do, Jesus trusts us to carry out his work until he returns. There is the work of witnessing to Jesus in our daily lives. There is the work to be done in our families, our schools, our local churches and our community. There is the work of caring for those who are hurting and have needs. There is the work of guiding and leading others, pointing people to the comforting message of the Gospel. There is the work of living "lives holy and dedicated to God," "doing our best to be pure and faultless in God's sight and to be at peace with him"

Celebrating Our Faith: Liturgy

Now is the Time to Sign up for Christmas Mass at St. Matthias

Six masses will be offered

December 24th

2:00 pm (newly added with permission from the Diocese)

4:00 pm

6:30 pm

Midnight

December 25th

If you are not feeling well, you are requested to stay home

Everyone is required to wear a mask

Groups/individuals will be separated by 6 ft

Plenty of hand sanitizer will be on-hand

Main doors will be the entry points and all mass goers will use one exit in a safely distanced manner

Those receiving communion are encouraged to receive the host on the hand. If you receive communion on the tongue, you must remain seated at the end of mass until everyone else has received.

Being Good Stewards

Stewardship Reflection Nov 29, 2020
First Sunday of Advent

“Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time will come.” - Mark 13:33

We all take things for granted. In particular, we take time for granted. We make our lives too busy. We plan our time, our days, weeks, months, even years in advance. Remember, our time on earth is a gift. None of us knows how long we will be here. Start today and begin thanking God for each and every day. Take time in silence, every day, and listen to how God is calling you right now to help build His kingdom on earth.

Reflexiones — 29 de noviembre de 2020
Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

“... todo lo que hiciste por uno de mis hermanos más pequeños, lo hiciste por mí”. - MATEO 25:40

La mayoría de nosotros somos generosos cuando nos conviene. Somos generosos cuando tenemos el tiempo o el dinero. Pero la generosidad es lo opuesto a eso. Significa dar nuestro tiempo, dinero, compasión, perdón o misericordia cuando no es conveniente; cuando no está en nuestro horario, sino en el horario de la otra persona.

Caring for Others

A Joint Service Project St. Matthias 6-12 Youth Ministry, GIFT Families, Confirmation Prep And All Who Want to Join In!

GIFT BAGS OF WARMTH AND Joy Hats, Gloves and Scarves
FOR FAMILIES SERVED BY UNITY SQUARE NEW BRUNSWICK
Sunday, December 13 Between 9:30AM-1PM

Drop off Gift bags by shed/garage building at rear of St. Matthias Parking lot!
Because of the pandemic all items must be in gift bags only!
Questions or to help? Dee Nann, dnann@stmatthias.net

Unity Square is a community organizing and social concerns initiative of Catholic Charities, Diocese of Metuchen. Their efforts focus on a target neighborhood of about 6,000 low-income residents of New Brunswick. Most neighborhood families are working poor, and have young children. Especially because of the pandemic these items were suggested as a need for many within the community. All gift bags will be donated directly to Unity Square.

2020 GIVING TREE – COVID-19 Edition

A symbolic Giving Tree has been placed in the Church as a reminder of our continuing support for those less fortunate. In an effort to keep the staff and our volunteers safe, we will not be physically collecting gifts this year. Instead, we are requesting all gifts be shipped directly to the organizations by December 20, 2020. ABSOLUTELY NO GIFTS ARE TO BE LEFT IN CHURCH NOR BROUGHT TO THE PARISH OFFICE. WE WILL NOT BE MAKING ANY DELIVERIES.

To participate this year, please go to www.stmatthias.net/social-concerns/giving-tree

Participating once again are: Great Expectations, Elijah's Promise, Ozanam Family Shelter, Ozanam Men's Shelter, PACT (gift cards only), Pregnancy Aid and YES Learning Center (pre-school children ages 3-5). If you have any questions, please call Joanne Diana (732)873-8521 or send an email to j-diana@comcast.net. Thank you!

O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties.

Guide us as we strive to make our parish communities places of welcome and assistance for mothers in need. Help us become instruments of God's love and compassion.

Mary, Mother of the Church, graciously help us build a culture of life and a civilization of love, together with all people of good will, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life.

Stewardship is a way of life, a way of thanking God for all our blessings by returning a portion of the time, talent and treasure allotted to us. Whether it is clothes for the poor, food for the hungry, outreach to youth, in education, in worship, or simply arms stretched out to someone who is lonely, the Catholic Community of St. Matthias encourages everyone to become stewards of the gifts they have been given by God, returning a portion in gratitude to God for the work of ministry here at St. Matthias and beyond our local community.

St. Matthias School is a PreK3 through 8th grade school rooted in faith, inspired by love, and dedicated to academic excellence. Before and After School Care Programs are available. Come visit! Contact 732-828-1402 to schedule a tour.
