

PULPIT ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR EASTER VIGIL
GOOD EVENING and Happy Easter!!!

We welcome all of you participating in this liturgy. Happy Easter to you and your loved ones. We invite you to enter into the sacredness of this Great Easter Vigil, whomever you may be, or wherever you find yourself on the journey. Know that here at St. Matthias, ALL ARE WELCOME!

- Communion tonight will be at the usual time within the Mass. All participants should return to your seats after communion following the Final Blessing. The Hospitality Ministers will usher everyone safely. Hand sanitizer will be made available to ensure safety in returning to your seat. Here in the church, all will come to communion up the center aisle only. Hospitality Ministers will guide the side pews up the center first and then those of you in the center pews. If for some reason you cannot, please wait until everyone has received and then approach the priest's line. After the closing hymn, please exit as usual through the side doors near the altar. For safety reasons, you should receive the host by hand.
- Tomorrow's Easter Sunday Masses will be at 8:00 and 10:00 am and at 12:00 noon. There is no Mass on Monday, April 5th and the Parish Office will be closed that day

Let us now greet each other (from a distance) with the Joy of Easter. If you are participating from home, know that although we are separated, we are all still one in the Spirit and one in Our Lord

Resucitó, resucitó, resucitó, aleluya.

Aleluya, aleluya, aleluya, resucitó. Final: Aleluya.

And death now, vanished is the fear now, banished are my tears now, death has passed away.

The kingdom, praise to God, the kingdom! Raised up to the kingdom, we shall live in love.

Our gladness, blessing in our gladness, this will be our gladness, that he is alive.

With him then, die and live with him then, rise and sing our hymn then, sing alleluia.

Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia! Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!

But the pains which he endured, Alleluia! Our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above, Alleluia! Praise eternal as his love, Alleluia!

Praise him, now, his might profess, Alleluia! Father, Son, and Spirit blest. Alleluia!

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You, and I believe your words, "Come to me all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you."
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.
